Since our last report a Committee of Inquiry appointed by Your Excellency has considered and reported upon various questions in connection with Intermediate Education in Ireland. While some members of the Board make reservations with regard to certain specific points we find ourselves in general agreement with the recommendations of the Committee. The findings of the Committee constitute a strong endorsement of the views of the Board as expressed on several occasions, and more especially in our Report for the year 1916. Their recommendations as to the basis of distribution of grants is practically identical with that outlined in that Report. They further emphasise the urgent need for increased funds particularly with a view to ameliorating the condition of the teachers, and express the view that the funds at the disposal of the Secondary Education Authority should be elastic. Both of these were strongly urged by us in our Report for 1916.

The evils and unfairness to the schools of a fixed grant have become more apparent than ever during the last few years. Owing to the war the demands upon the Board's finances have naturally increased enormously, with the result that the amount available for School Grant has correspondingly diminished. It will be seen from the accounts of the Board that the increases have been almost entirely in items which were outside the power of the Board to control. In items where control was possible every economy that could be made without loss of efficiency was made. We would especially call attention to the fact that in spite of the enormous increase in the cost of paper, printing, etc., the amount spent on these in the year 1918 was considerably less than in 1914. Had the most energetic efforts not been made to curtail expenditure in this direction one might have expected to find a very large increase, probably approximating to 100 per cent., instead of a diminution. While the printing and stationery bill for 1914 was about £2,662 the average for the last four years has been well under £1,930, a considerable achievement in such a period of rising prices.

With regard to the question of expanding grants, we would draw Your Excellency's attention to the fact that on 4th March, 1918, there was a debate in the House of Commons with reference to the Additional Parliamentary Grant. During the debate Mr. Samuels (the Solicitor-General for Ireland) spoke as follows :—

" In this matter I would like to say that Ireland should be treated by the Treasury as a cheerful giver. We have, however, a sum of £50,000 given to us, and, as you see by the Vote, it is an Equivalent Grant. That at once implies that it is not a stereotyped Grant. I have had the advantage of consulting the Financial Secretary to the Treasury, who assures me that it is what is called an Equivalent Grant, and that it will vary from time to time, if this system of Equivalent Grants is continued, according to the amount that may be paid for English Education. Let me remove a misapprehension that possibly may exist. The name of the late Chief Secretary (Mr. Birrell), who certainly did in his time all that he could to push the interest of Irish education, is very honourably associated with what is called the 'Birrell Grant.' That is a stereotyped sum of £40,000. This grant of £50,000 is not a stereotyped sum."

The above is a very definite statement, and we find the following figures in the estimates for 1918-19 :—

	1918-19	1917-18	Increase
Grants for secondary schools, etc., in England, ...	1,568,570	1,396,100	172,470

and in the estimates for 1919-20 :—

	1919-20	1918-19	Increase
Grants for secondary schools, etc., in England, ...	1,790,660	1,568,570	222,090

Yet in these two years there has been no increase whatever in the £50,000 for Irish Intermediate Education.

In 1917-18 we received £50,000 for the first time; in 1918-19 we received the same sum; and again for the year 1919-20 the same sum appears in the estimates.

It would seem from the figures for English education that there should have been a considerable increase in the amount paid in 1918-19 and estimated for 1919-20 for secondary education in Ireland.

We trust that the undertaking indicated in the above speech will speedily be carried into effect.

APPENDIX II.

THE BURKE MEMORIAL PRIZES.

A sum of money, subscribed in memory of the late THOMAS HENRY BURKE, Esq., Under Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant, was transferred by the Burke Memorial Committee, on 18th March, 1884, to the Intermediate Education Board for Ireland, who undertook to administer in accordance with the following Rules (the sum funded is £1,222 18s. 11d. Consols):—

I. The annual income from the fund shall be applied in paying three Prizes, one of £16, one of £10, and a second of £10; any surplus or deficiency to be apportioned in the same ratio. If, in the opinion of the Commissioners, sufficient merit be not shown by the Candidates competing to justify the award of any or either of the Prizes, the amount of such Prize may be, at the discretion of the Board, withheld and added to the principal.

II. No student shall be qualified to receive these Prizes except the children of persons who are, or have been, in receipt of salary or pension in Ireland, paid out of money derived from Parliamentary Grants, Rates or Taxes, other than members of the Naval or Military Services not being also in Civil employment.

III. The Prizes shall be awarded as follows:—that of £16 to the Boy whom, at the annual Examination in the Junior Grade among Male Candidates qualified in the manner expressed in the next preceding Rule, the Board shall adjudge to be the best answerer; One Prize of £10 to the Boy whom, in the same Grade at such Examination, the Board shall adjudge to be the next best answerer; and the other of £10 to the Girl whom, at such Examination in the same Grade, among Female Candidates qualified in the manner aforesaid, the Board shall adjudge to be the best answerer.

IV. The decision of the Board shall be final and decisive in determining whether the Candidates fulfil the conditions of the third Rule.

V. The Board may deduct all expenses connected with the trust from the yearly income.
